

Call for Papers

Joint Urban and Spatial Economics PhD Workshop Helsinki GSE and Uppsala University May 28th- 29th, 2026

We would like to encourage all Helsinki GSE PhD students that are working on topics related to urban economics or spatial economics in a broad sense to submit a paper or extended abstract to this workshop. This will be a joint PhD workshop with Uppsala University. The workshop will start on May 28th at noon and end on May 29th at noon. Each paper will be discussed by a faculty member at the Helsinki GSE, another senior researcher affiliated to the Urban Economics research group or a faculty member from Uppsala University. We plan on including both short (10-15 min.) and long (20-30 min.) presentations.

The workshop will be on-site at the Aalto University Otaniemi campus.

Submit your paper or extended abstract by May 1st through this form:
